ABOUT ILCT

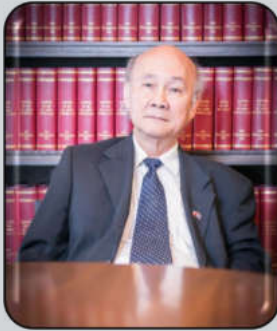

ILCT was founded by a U.S. attorney, Mr. Charles Warren Kirkwood, as a Registered Ordinary Partnership, in Bangkok, on 4 July 1966. ILCT was once a part of a multi domestic law firm, Russin & Vecchi (R&V). At that time, R&V has four offices in Asia and concentrates solely on Asia related work. Other offices are: Bangkok, Hanoi, Ho Chi Minh City and Taipei.

With over 54-year history, ILCT was one of the pioneer international law offices engaging in the business law practice in Thailand. ILCT is a full-service law firm which offers legal services in almost every aspects of corporate and commercial laws. ILCT also housed many experts from across the fields. The majority of ILCT's professionals are multilingual (English, French, Italian and Chinese) and many with multitude of technical expertise (Fintech, securities, immigration, real estate, biotechnology etc.).
